Short Story

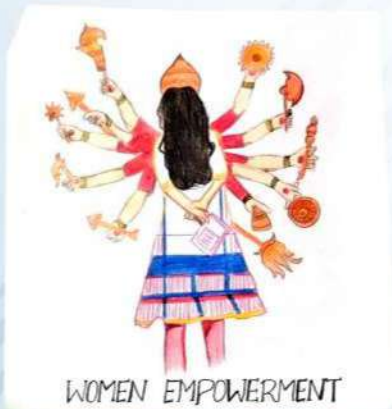

"A Woman is defined by her loves compassion and care. She makes lives beautiful and complete. If Life is rainbow, a woman is different colour on it. If Life in dark, a woman is the hope of light. Women are the epitome of Courage, hope and life".

Women make the world come alive. They make the world colourful. They are the inspiration behind all that happens. They are the pillars of strength ti many around us. The Centrifugal force of your own little world called family.

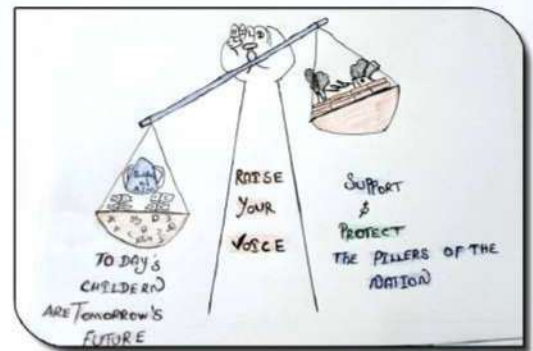

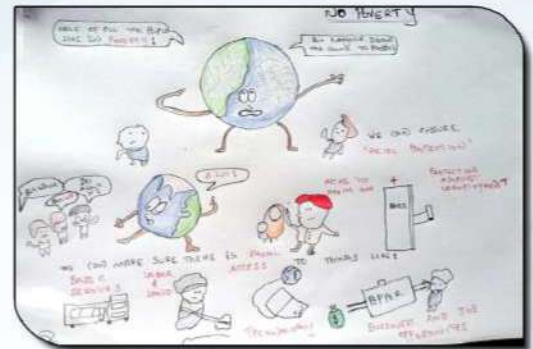

In all our families we like mothers, there is a beautiful 6 letter poem 'MOTHER'. A Woman struggle to bare a child. Some are thinking that woman is struggling only 10 months to bare a child but she struggles every day to protect her child from every grim. Mother's love is not a showy love. It's a Blood love for human blood should be pure, otherwise, we cannot live. For everything there is a plastic organs but, for blood there is nothing, likewise there is no substitute for mother's love. Mother's love is purer than White Milk. Mother Love begins from birth till death. She Suffers when her child goes wrong. She feels happy when appreciates her child. She helps her child even in the old age. Thus we are calling a mother "A Living God". So also our mother's are women. We should care for them. We all should have the feelings of they are my mother and my sister.

We all Should respect women. So let us change our minds towards that word women who are equal to men. We are giving importance to Lover's Day but we forget to wish our mother on mother's day. Let us think about that. "True Love is not coming from the heart. But, True Love which makes heart".
