

	DEPARTMENT OF INDUSTRIAL CHEMISTRY (UGC-SAP, DST-FIST, DST-PURSE, MHRD-RUSA assisted Department) ALAGAPPA UNIVERSITY (A State University Established by the Government of Tamil Nadu in 1985, Accredited with A+ Grade by NAAC (CGPA 3.64) in the Third Cycle, Graded as Category-I University and Granted Autonomy by MHRD-UGC) KARAIKUDI-630003, Tamil Nadu, India	 V. S. Dr. R. M. Alagappa Chettiar
Phone – Office (+91)4565223246	Phone – HoD (+91)4565228836	E-mail indchem@alagappauniversity.ac.in

Industrial cum Exposure Visit 2024

REPORT

Industrial cum Exposure Visit is a part of the academic programme. The Department has arranged and conducted Industrial Visit / Study Tour / Exposure visit to the PG students with due administrative permission and support from the University for Three days from 28th March to 30th March 2024.

43 II MSc students and 42 I MSc students participated with due consent from their Parent / Guardian. Dr.M. Sundararajan, Associate Professor and Head (i/c) and Dr.G.Gopu Associate Professor, 2 Project staffs and 5 PhD Research Scholars accompanied the PG students. Two private buses (TN 63 CV 1199 & TN 63 CW 4699) were hired. The group departed from the Department on 27.03.2024, 10 pm.

Day 1 (28.03.2024)

Reached Thiruparappu on 28.03.2024, 5.30 am.

1. Exposure Visit to Thiruparappu Falls

Tiruparappu Falls, located in Kanyakumari district of Tamil Nadu, is a picturesque natural wonder worth exploring. As the Chittar River cascades over a height of around 50 feet, it creates a mesmerizing sight amidst lush greenery. The serene ambiance and the soothing sound of water make it a popular spot for visitors. Visitors can enjoy bathing in the cool water and take in the scenic beauty of the surrounding landscape with facilities for explore the nature and relaxation. The students and faculty members enjoyed the bathing and refreshed.

2. Exposure Visit to Padmanabhaswamy Temple

It is a Hindu temple and considered as the richest place of worship in the world. The name of the city of 'Thiruvananthapuram' in Malayalam translates to "The City of Lord Ananta", (The City of Lord Vishnu) referring to the deity of the Padmanabhaswamy temple. The temple is built in an intricate fusion of the Chera style of architecture, featuring high walls, and a 16th century gopura. The principal deity Padmanabhaswamy (Vishnu) is enshrined in the "AnanthaShayana" posture, the eternal yogic sleep on the infinite serpent Adi Shesha. The students and faculty members visited the temple in cultural dresses and made the dharshan.

3. Exposure Visit to Trivandrum Zoo

Trivandrum Zoo, which providing students with an education experience in wildlife conservation. The zoo's well-designed enclosures showcased a diverse range of animals, offering insights into their habitats and behaviours. The visit concluded with students gaining a deeper appreciation for nature and a commitment to environmental preservation.

4. Exposure Visit to SHANGUMUGHAM Beach

Visiting Shangu mugham Beach was a captivating experience filled with tranquility and natural beauty. The soft sands stretched endlessly along the coastline, inviting leisurely stroll and peaceful contemplation. The rhythmic sounds of waves crashing against the shore created a soothing atmosphere, perfect for relaxation. Students tastes fresh sea foods the at nearly shops available at the beach.

Day 2 (29.03.2024)

Reached Kochi on 29.03.2024,5.30 am

5. Industrial Visit to Sea-blue ship yard

The visit to Sea-Blue Shipyard in Kochi was an insightful and engaging experience. Upon arrival, the sheer size and complexity of the operation were immediately apparent. From witnessing the intricate processes of ship building to understanding the meticulous attention to detail in maintenance and repair work, every aspect was fascinating. The knowledgeable staff guided the students through various sections, providing valuable insights into the maritime industry's workings. It was a unique opportunity to witness firsthand the integration of technology and craftsmanship in the creation of these maritime marvels.

6. Exposure Visit to Marine Drive & Port Kochi by boat

Embarking on an exposure visit to Marine Drive and Port Kochi by boat was an unforgettable experience. The serene beauty of Marine Drive, with its tranquil water and picturesque surroundings, provided a soothing backdrop for journey. We navigated towards Port Kochi, the atmosphere transformed into one of bustling activity, with cargo ships loading and unloading goods, giving us a firsthand glimpse into maritime industry.

7. Exposure Visit to Hill Palace & Museum

Hill Palace, constructed in 1865, stands as Kerala's largest archaeological museum and Kochi's administrative hub. Covering 54 acres, it comprises buildings showcasing local architectural styles. Attractions include the Hill Palace Archeologic museum, Heritage Museum, parks. It was handed over to the Kerala government by the Kochi Royal Family. The Museum galleries displaying ancient artifacts, sculptures, coins, and items from the Kochi Maharaja and royal family.

Day 3 (30.03.2024)

8. Industrial Visit to MASCO TEA FACTORY

The industrial visit to Masco Tea in Vagamon was an insightful experience. The company's commitment to quality and sustainability in tea production was evident. From witnessing the meticulous process of tea cultivation to learning about innovative packaging techniques, the visit provided valuable insights into the tea industry. Additionally, interacting with industry experts and gaining firsthand knowledge about the challenges and opportunities in tea manufacturing further enriched the learning experience.

9. Exposure Visit to Forest View Points

Forest View Points in Vagamon was a captivating experience immersed in nature's beauty and biodiversity. Exploring the lush greenery and scenic landscapes offered a profound appreciation for the importance of environmental conservation. Visit Pine forest, Mountain View points and tea estate through jeep safari was the wonder full experience.

Returned & Reached the Department on 31.03.2024 at 6.30 am